

Questions for sharing after reading a book

Owen by Kevin Henkes

Think about a favorite blanket or toy you had or still have. What is/was it like (describe it)? What are some things you did with it? Do you still have it or what happened to it?

If you could keep one item until you grow up, and take it with you wherever you went--what item would it be? How would you share this with your friends?

Bailey Goes Camping by Kevin Henkes

Tell something you are too young to do now or don't know how to do yet that you are looking forward to and WHY.

Show pen marks in the book. What are some ways to be responsible (character education) when taking care of a book?

Share your favorite part or tell something about the story.
